

Global Astronomy Month 2016 - Children's Art Contest

Rules

1. All entries will be accepted through the month of April. Start submitting April 1, 2016. Contest ends and judging will begin May 1, 2016. Winners will be announced at the beginning of June 2016 and will be announced via the AWB-GAM 2016 website and an email will be sent to the registered contestant.
2. Artwork must be a unique piece created by the entrant. Young children may have some adult assistance but the concept and construction must be largely completed by the child.
3. Artwork must be a digital file. Jpgs, or pngs are accepted. There are no minimums on file size, but be aware that if your entry is too small/low resolution it may not work well on the calendar or gift card prizes. This will be considered when judging. Ideally entries need to be at least 3400 pixels at their widest side, and 300dpi.
4. Artwork must be entered in the proper age groups: 6 and Under, 7 – 10, 11-14 and 15-17.
5. Entrants may provide a title and caption (50 words or less), this is optional but may be considered in the judging process.
6. A parent or guardian must give permission for the child to enter the competition, this is indicated by including their email on the entry form.
7. All winners will be contacted through the email address provided. Failure to respond timely to the notification shall result in forfeiture of the Prize. All Prizes will be delivered to the winners at the address provided after being contacted.
8. All submitted works are eligible for a GAM 2016 participation certificate.
9. All entries will be posted to the AWB-GAM 2016 website unless requirements are not met or is deemed inappropriate for the contest
10. Grant of Rights: Each entrant unconditionally transfers all rights, title, interest, claim, ideas, concepts, copyrighted materials and trademarks. Entries may be used in advertising, or any other AWB publicity
11. The organizers retain the right to use submissions digitally, in print or in exhibits, or reproduce submitted material in any other way.
12. Submissions will be judged for esthetic value and originality.
